Your Student Travel Leader for Over 30 Years!

Dear Educator:

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter of introduction, and welcome back to the 2013-2014 school year. We are all facing unparalleled challenges this year. What can One If By Land Tours do to help you with your tour planning?

This is our thirty-fourth year as student tour operators. Teachers and administrators throughout the United States recognize that One If By Land Tours offers the best value in student travel. There are no gimmicks. Our buying power saves your students a considerable amount of money. Some of your neighboring schools have saved as much as $10,000 on one tour. More importantly, teachers and parents were amazed by the quality and seamless execution of the tour.

We customize all tours to meet the needs of your students. If you have a specific curriculum focus, we can develop an itinerary that more than satisfies that need. Our tour planners are always available to discuss your itinerary objectives.

The following pages contain information on popular destinations. We have selected day trips that are within 3 ½ hours of your school. Our overnight tours can be adjusted, or combined. From the simple to the exotic, no tour is too small or too large for us to plan. If you do not see a destination in our brochure, please let us know.

I look forward to speaking with you personally. I can be reached at 704-844-2415, or at my e-mail address stuart@oneifbylandtours.com.

Yours truly,

Stuart Weisberg

Lower Manhattan/ 911 Memorial & Museum

The tour begins with a ride down the "Canyon of Heroes". A stop at the famous "bull" at Bowling Green is an ideal photo opportunity. We then visit Battery Park, the "sphere" and eternal flame from the World Trade Center tower. A visit to 911 Memorial follows and the long awaited new 9/11 Museum. Our lunch break is at nearby restaurants, or bring your own lunch. We then board the Zephyr for a one hour cruise.

Financial New York

This constantly evolving tour took a giant step the end of 2006, with the opening of the Museum of American Finance (formerly Financial History) at the former band of New York Building on Wall Street. Permanent and changing exhibits dedicated to the democratic free market and entrepreneurship highlight the visit. After lunch break visit the Gild Vault, fifty feet below sea level, at the Federal Reserve.

Liberty Island

Our One If By Land tour escort guides you through Liberty Island. Tour narration begins at your school. Bring a bag lunch, or eat at the concessions. Tour of Battery Park, ferry ticket, and a narrated tour is included. A visit to "911 Memorial" can also be included. When the National Immigration Museum opens it will be an added addition to this already historically inspiring tour.

New York Mosaic

This tour offers a new twist on an old theme. A visit to three vibrant neighborhoods-Little Italy, the Jewish Lower Eastside and Chinatown now include visits to the Lower East Side Tenement Museum, the Shrine of St Anthony, a walking tour, and a Chinese or Italian Feast. (Luncheon may be eliminated)

The Immigrant Experience

The tour combines Liberty Island with a tour of either the Jewish Lower East Side, Chinatown or Little Italy. An optional luncheon in Little Italy or Chinatown can be provided. The museum of Jewish Heritage can be substituted. Admission to the Tenement Museum is included.

New York's Finest and Bravest

The tour offers student a great opportunity to understand the history and hard work of the police and firefighters of New York City. Experience FDNYC from it's early day to the first permanent memorial dedicated to the 343 members who lost their lives on 9-11 at the NYC Fire Museum. Even in it's current temporary location it gives yours students a thick slice of true-crime Americana from Al Capone's sub machine gun, to a high-tech video training system for police. Experience five hundreds of artifacts, such as mug shots, uniforms and a vintage "Car 54".

Dance Around The Island

Board the Spirit of New York or your private charter for a DJ dance cruise around Manhattan. Your three-hour private cruise includes a DJ and catered meal. Choose a ship and a meal to meet your group size and budget. The cruise is ideal alone, as a prom or combined with other "Big Apple" attractions.

Classic Midtown Manhattan

A guided tour of the United Nations is followed by a visit to the Empire State Building. Take the Skyride simulating a helicopter ride around Manhattan. After the unique experience, we take a ride to the observation deck for a panoramic view.

Rockefeller Center Experience

Our visit to "30 Rock" is both exciting and self-contained. Spend the entire time at attractions of the GE Building, or venture out to 5th Avenue. Our tour begins with a ride to the "Top of the Rock" observation decks of Rockefeller Center. With it's one of a kind view on three observation decks, exhibits, and a multi-media shows are all available to you! Lunch break is at the concourse shops. After Lunch visit the Nintendo Zone, take a walk through the "Channel" or St Patrick's Cathedral. NBC Studio Tour Closed for renovations.
