WINTER 2010-
2011

December 29, 2010—April 27, 2011

December 29-January 3 - "The Millennium Revisited" - Myrtle Beach—6 Days

We return to Myrtle Beach where we celebrated the Millennium. The party will host more than 1,000 people from all over the U.S. We will spend 3 nights at the Hilton Hotel on the beach. In addition, overnight accommodations are provided for one night in each direction to at the Chesapeake Beach Resort & Spa. Three holiday shows including the Carolina Opry, Alabama Theatre, and Palace Theatre are part of the package.

January 12-13, 2011 - Winter at the Tropicana Casino - 2 Days

Once again we offer the unbeatable overnight package to the Tropicana Casino in Atlantic City. The package includes accommodations, and casino bonuses worth more than half of the cost of the tour. The second day's excursion will be at the Showboat Casino.

January 26 - "Driving Miss Daisy" - on Broadway

James Earl Jones and Vanessa Redgrave star in this limited engagement on Broadway. This is the first Broadway production of the 1988 Pulitzer Prize-winning play. We all remember Morgan Freeman's portrayal of the African-American chauffeur in the film. Now James Earl Jones gives a performance that will be remembered for the rest of his life and beyond. Don't miss the gentle relationship, and the humor, of the 72 year old widow and her chauffeur.

February 14 - The Way to the Heart Tour

Everyone knows that the way to the heart is through the stomach. For Valentine's Day we present our special progressive culinary tour. We visit the Chelsea Market where we roam the shops and sample various foods at the Lobster Place, Sarabeth's, Buon Italia, and Ronny Brook Milk barn. After we visit Chelsea Market, we trace the steps of Cary Grant ("An Affair to Remember"), and Tom Hanks ("Sleepless in Seattle") as we visit the the Empire State Building.

Headliner Yakov Smirnoff, the famous Russian comedian who coined the phrase "What a Country", highlights our overnight tour to Atlantic City. Two-time Branson Comedian of the year, Yakov will celebrate the spirit of life through hilarious comedy, patriotism, and love of family. If that was not enough, we include the musical revue at the Tropicana Casino, casino slot bonuses, a buffet, and overnight accommodations.
