After brunch we simply exit the restaurant and board the River Rose for a two hour scenic cruise along the Hudson River. Bring your cameras because it is foliage time in New York

October 27 - “Chasing Rainbows” at the Goodspeed Opera House

Before “Meet Me in St. Louis”, “Easter Parade”, “A Star is Born”, Carnegie Hall, and the Palace, Judy Garland was simply “the little girl with the great big voice.” Don’t miss the story of Judy Garland’s life from early childhood to the Wizard of Oz. The show is filled with Old Hollywood charm and lots of familiar songs. The pre-theatre luncheon is next door at Gelston House.

November 9 - “Finnegan’s Irish Wake” at Doolan’s of Spring Lake, NJ

Mike Byrne (All Star Productions) and the Green Derby Boys show band lead us through a hilarious exaggeration of an Irish Wake in the home. Doolan’s is one of the finest catering facilities on the Jersey Shore. If weather permits we’ll drive a few blocks to the beach to take in the ocean air.

December 4 - “The Miracle of Christmas” at the Pines Dinner Theater in Allentown, PA

Our members enjoyed “America Sings” so much in July that we are heading back to the Pines Dinner Theatre for “The Miracle of Christmas”. Forced to visit relatives in Vermont, Clara’s Christmas vacation turns into an unforgettable adventure. Featuring all your favorite carols, the Nativity and even Santa Claus, don’t miss “The Miracle of Christmas” and a delicious luncheon.
