

February 24-May 22, 2019

February 24, 2019 - "Kiss Me Kate" on Broadway

In the constellation of musical comedy masterpieces, Kiss Me, Kate shines as perhaps Broadway's most sparkling achievement. This is the winner of the first-ever Tony Award for Best Musical, alive with onstage romance, backstage passion, comedy high and low, a hilarious dash of Shakespeare's The Taming of the Shrew, and the songwriting genius of Cole Porter at his stylish, sexy, sophisticated best, including "Too Darn Hot," "So In Love" and "Always True To You In My Fashion." Once again, Roundabout catapults you to musical comedy heaven, with a brand-new Kiss Me, Kate starring Tony Award winner Kelli O'Hara. Tony's di Napoli is the site for our family-style luncheon.

May 5, 2019 - "Tootsie" on Broadway

How can we forget the hysterical film "Tootsie" starring Dustin Hoffman? Like the film, the musical tells the story of a talented but volatile actor whose reputation for being difficult forces him to adopt a new identity as a woman in order to land a job. Some new plot twists and updating have made the musical fresh and hysterical. David Yazbek, Tony Award winner for "The Band's Visit", has composed the music for "Tootsie". Lunch is at Tony's di Napoli.

May 22, 2019 - "Queens for a Day"

You lived there your entire life (or very close) and never visited some iconic attractions. When was the last time you had authentic Greek food in Astoria? The Louis Armstrong House was the home of Louis Armstrong and his wife Lucille Wilson from 1943 until his death in 1971. Lucille gave ownership of it to the city of New York in order to create a museum focused on her husband. The Museum is a National Historic Landmark and a New York City landmark. The Museum of the Moving Image is a media museum located in a former building of the historic Astoria Studios. The Museum's core exhibition, Behind the Screen, immerses visitors in the creative process of making moving images. It features over 1,400 artifacts, from nineteenth-century optical toys to video games, as well as an array of interactive experiences, audiovisual material, and artworks. Don't miss the Jim Henson Exhibition. Luncheon buffet is at Zenon's in Astoria.
