While Princeton is known for its Ivy League University founded in 1746, Princeton is rich in history and beauty. For a few months in 1783 Princeton served as our nation's capital. The Grounds for Sculpture is a 42 acre sculpture park and museum. The audio tour enhances your visit to the fountains, orchards, and sculptures. Lunch is at La Mezzaluna in downtown Princeton. June 29, 2023 - "The Sound of Music" at the Ivoryton Playhouse

You won't need to "climb every mountain" to see one of the most beloved musicals of all time. The Ivoryton Playhouse in Connecticut is the ideal theatre for this production. The outstanding cast promises to be a show to remember. David Pittsinger is renowned as a stage performer of the greatest distinction for his dramatic portrayals in the world's major opera houses. He received the nomination for the Helen Hayes Award for his performance as Emile de Becque in Rodgers & Hammerstein's South Pacific at the Kennedy Center. Patricia Schuman is a world-renowned mezzo-soprano. The luncheon is next door at The Blue Hound Cookery.
