It showcases the new generation of exceptional performers. Celebrate St. Patrick’s Day as millions have done with breathtaking step dancing at the Mayo Performing Arts Center in Morristown, New Jersey. Lunch is at the Grasshopper Off the Green Irish Pub.

March 26-29, 2026 - “America 250”

Join us for a four-day celebration of America’s 250th Anniversary. Iconic attractions, and iconic events, fill the itinerary. It is cherry blossom season in Washington, DC. Besides the monuments and memorials, we have added Mount Vernon (George Washington’s Home and Plantation), Hillwood Estate (Marjorie Merriweather Post), and the National Museum of the U.S. Army. In Williamsburg, we take you back to the first colony in America (circa 1609) at Jamestown, the National Museum of the American Revolution at Yorktown - last battle of the American Revolution and surrender of General Cornwallis), and the Colonial Williamsburg 18th Century American Village.

April 14, 2026 - “Some Enchanted Evening”

The Hunterdon Hills Playhouse celebrates its fiftieth anniversary in 2026. What a better way to celebrate than a tribute to the songs of Rogers and Hammerstein. This dazzling revue brings you unforgettable classics from Oklahoma, South Pacific, Carousel, King & I, Sound of Music, Cinderella, and more. Luncheon is served at the theatre.

April 22-23, 2026 - “Sooners and Israelites” (Waiting List Only)

Sight & Sound Theaters presents its newest musical – “Joshua”. This large-scale, biblical epic will bring the story of Joshua, the conquest of Canaan, and the fall of Jericho, to the stage with the signature Sight & Sound blend of live animals, special effects, and live actors. This year we offer a second musical production of “Oklahoma” at the Dutch Apple Dinner Theatre. Overnight accommodations are at the award-winning Inn at Leola Village.

May 22, 2026 - “Hank, George, and the Big House”

Hank and George are the two mules that tow the boat on a leisurely trip from the National Canal Museum to the lock tender's house and back on the Lehigh Canal. After the relaxing journey, we head to Bethlehem, PA for lunch. The afternoon is spent on a tour of Andalusia. Our tour includes “The Big House”, gardens, and arboretum overlooking the Delaware River. What a contrast from the days that mules towed barges full of anthracite, to the splendor of the 1797 estate of Nicholas Biddle.
