Volume 19 Issue 1
Spring 2027

March 7, 2027 - "A Taste of Ireland"

Céad míle fáilte (a hundred thousand welcomes). Please join us for an enjoyable day with "A Taste of Ireland" - the Irish music and dance sensation. A Taste of Ireland has been featured across North American television and public radio - including NBC, CBS and ABC affiliates - praised on London's West End for its sister production Éireann, and reviewed by Australia's leading arts press. Audiences and critics alike respond to its mix of world-champion dance, live musicians and Irish wit. The performance and luncheon are at the Santander Performing Arts Center.

March 24, 2027 - "Dolly: A True American Musical" on Broadway (1 mezzanine ticket left)

Straight from Nashville is "Dolly - A True Original Musical". Classic Dolly Parton songs, and new ones written for the show, highlight three phases of Dolly's life. The show was scheduled to open on Dolly's Birthday! Lunch is at Tony's di Napoli Times Square.

April 9, 2027 - "The Sky Above and the Streets Below" (Tour requires walking)

This tour features New York City attractions you always wanted to tour, and the newest attraction in New York City. Guided tours include Grand Central Station, the New York Public Library at Bryant Park, and One Times Square, where the ball drops every year. Your visit to One Times Square includes the One Times Square Skywalk, with 360-degree views of New York City, and an interactive journey through the history of Times Square. Lunch is at Connolly's Pub.

April 15, 2027 - "9-5"

Once again, in honor of Dolly Parton, we bring you the production based on the movie and her classic tune. The matinee performance is at the White Plains Performing Arts Center. All seats are in the orchestra. Lunch is at J.C. Fogarty's in Bronxville.

April 21-22, 2027 - "Jonah" - at the Sight & Sound Theatre

Just when you thought we could not top last year's Sight & Sound tour, we mete the challenge. Next April , we head to Lancaster for the revival of "Jonah". This audience favorite first premiered on March 10, 2012, at the Millennium Theatre in Lancaster. This year's tour pairs "My Fair Lady" at the Fulton theater in downtown Lancaster. The Fulton Theatre is considered America's oldest continuously operating theatre. Built in 1852 on the site of an infamous 18th-century jail, it has evolved from a community meeting hall, to a premier regional performing arts venue, earning National Historic Landmark status in 1969. A pre-theater dinner will be at Miller's Smorgasbord. Our matinee performance of "Jonah" , on the second day, is followed by a visit to Kitchen Kettle Village. Overnight accommodation are at the Inn at Leola Village.

May 5, 2027 - "Dirty Dancing" - on Broadway (almost sold out)

"Nobody puts Baby in the corner". Let's return to the Catskills and the feel good movie of 1987. The production comes to Broadway for a limited engagement after touring. They will begin touring again in September. Seats are in the rear orchestras and front mezzanine. Lunch is at Tony's di Napoli Times Square.

May 16-18, 2027 - "Fragrant Fun in the Finger Lakes" - (limited walking)

Beautiful lakes, the fragrant bouquet of the "wine country", exotic animals, a sunset cruise, the sight and sounds of falls, and beautiful gardens, are all part of this journey to the Finger Lakes. Attractions include the Museum at Bethel Woods (Woodstock), the Ross Park Zoo, Captain Bill's Sunset Cruise, Sonnenberg Gardens (tour, tasting, and lunch). Montour Falls, tour of the Women's Rights National Historical Park, Roberson Museum, and wine tasting and lunch at Fox Run Vineyards. Overnight accommodations are at the Hampton Inn on Lake Keuka. Six meals are included.

June 23, 2027 - "Damn Yankees" - on Broadway

Neil Patrick Harris (the Devil), Julianne Hough (Lola), and Austin Scott (Young Joe Hardy) come together in Tony Award winner Sergio Trujillo's revival of Damn Yankees at the Marriott Marquis Theatre. Songs include "Whatever Lola Wants", "Six Months out of Every Year", "Goodbye Old Girl", "Heart", and "Two Lost Souls". Lunch is at Tony's di Napoli Times Square.
